

BS in Cybersecurity Pre-licensure disclosure

The BS in Cybersecurity program at Indiana Wesleyan University seeks to prepare the program graduate for certification and service in the Information Technology profession. Certification procedures do not vary by state.

CompTIA offers many industry Information Technology certifications. The IWU BS in Cybersecurity program prepares the graduate to seek Network+, Security+, and CySA+ certifications.

The procedure is:

Following successful program completion, the program graduate will apply to take the appropriate exam from CompTIA.

Students receive certification after successfully passing the selected exam.

Requirements do not vary by state. Certification granted by CompTIA are recognized nationally.